

Construction

What to Expect During Construction

Safety and public convenience are priorities.

To minimize the impact to the morning and evening commutes:

- Two travel lanes will be open in each direction during commute times
- Interchange ramps will remain open
- Construction work will be phased to minimize traffic interruptions
- Speed limits will be reduced to 55 mph
- Shoulder widths will be reduced in construction zones