Pursuant to Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), ITD does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, disability, economic status or Limited English Proficiency.

Persons that require a reasonable accommodation based on language or disability should contact ITD Civil Rights Office at civilrights@itd.idaho.gov. Requests should be made as early as possible to ensure the state has an opportunity to address the accommodation.
If you legally change your name because of:

1. Marriage
   - First, you must change the name on your Social Security card. Go to faq.ssa.gov or contact your local Social Security office for information on how to complete the necessary forms.
   - You must receive confirmation of the name change by the Social Security Administration before taking the next step. Your county Sheriff’s DMV office will electronically verify your name, birth date and Social Security number with the Social Security Administration.

2. Divorce
   - First, locate your certified marriage certificate or certified divorce record. If you do not have it, contact the Idaho Department of Health Welfare’s Bureau of Vital Records for a copy or the vital records agency of the applicable state for a copy.
   - Second, you must change the name on your Social Security card. Go to faq.ssa.gov or contact your local Social Security office for information on how to complete the necessary forms.
   - You must receive confirmation of the name change by the Social Security Administration before taking the next step. Your county Sheriff’s DMV office will electronically verify your name, birth date and Social Security number with the Social Security Administration.

3. Court Order
   - First, take the court order to your county Sheriff’s DMV office.
   - Second, locate your court order. If you do not have a copy, contact the court that issued the decree. A court order is also required to change a common or assumed name, such as William to Bill.
   - Third, take the court order to your county Sheriff’s DMV office.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Change Type</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Marriage</td>
<td>First, you must change the name on your Social Security card. Go to faq.ssa.gov or contact your local Social Security office for information on how to complete the necessary forms. You must receive confirmation of the name change by the Social Security Administration before taking the next step. Your county Sheriff’s DMV office will electronically verify your name, birth date and Social Security number with the Social Security Administration.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Divorce</td>
<td>First, locate your certified marriage certificate or certified divorce record. If you do not have it, contact the Idaho Department of Health Welfare’s Bureau of Vital Records for a copy or the vital records agency of the applicable state for a copy. Second, you must change the name on your Social Security card. Go to faq.ssa.gov or contact your local Social Security office for information on how to complete the necessary forms. You must receive confirmation of the name change by the Social Security Administration before taking the next step. Your county Sheriff’s DMV office will electronically verify your name, birth date and Social Security number with the Social Security Administration.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Court Order</td>
<td>First, take the court order to your county Sheriff’s DMV office. Second, locate your court order. If you do not have a copy, contact the court that issued the decree. A court order is also required to change a common or assumed name, such as William to Bill. Third, take the court order to your county Sheriff’s DMV office.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

You must also change the name on your Idaho driver’s license.