

Star Card – Idaho's REAL ID is available now!

The Star Card is Idaho's version of the REAL ID credentials. It is an Idaho driver's license or identification card that adds a star to show it is in compliance with national REAL ID security standards.

Starting May 7, 2025, you will need an Idaho Star Card driver's license, identification card, passport or military identification to fly commercially or enter a federal facility. The Star Card is not mandatory.

To learn more about the Star Card and the documents you will need to bring to your county Sheriff's DMV office, go to itd.idaho.gov/starcard.

New to Idaho?

What people moving from another state or U.S. territory to Idaho need to know about applying for an Idaho driver's license and titling and registering vehicles.

Driver's License

You must apply for an Idaho driver's license within 90 days of moving to Idaho

- Whether your out-of-state license has expired or not, you need to apply for an Idaho driver's license within 90 days of moving to Idaho.
- Students attending an Idaho college or university and members of the military on active duty and dependents do not need to apply for an Idaho driver's license if they have a valid out-of-state license

Bring your out-of-state driver's license to your county Sheriff's DMV office

- When applying for an Idaho driver's license, your out-of-state driver's license must be surrendered to your county Sheriff's DMV office.
- You will need to provide proof of U.S. citizenship or lawful presence as well as your identity. This is commonly accomplished by providing a U.S. certified birth certificate and an out-of-state driver's license or identification card.
- If you do not have an out-of-state credential you can check the Idaho Driver's Manual for a list of other acceptable photo identity documents. The manual is available at your local DMV offices or Online at dmv.idaho.gov.

- If the name on your birth certificate does not match your current name, you must bring a secondary identity document (See the Idaho Driver's Manual for a list of acceptable photo identity documents. The manual is available at local DMV offices or Online at dmv.idaho.gov).

Bring a document to prove you are now a resident of Idaho

You will be required to show proof of Idaho residency to receive an Idaho driver's license. Documents such as a lease or rental agreement, utility bills* or employment records are acceptable.

* Two proofs of residency for a Star card.

You must complete and pass two tests

To successfully apply for an Idaho driver's license, you must complete and pass a visual screening test and a knowledge test of Idaho's traffic rules. To review the Idaho Driver's Manual and take practice tests, go to dmv.idaho.gov. If you are a new driver, you will also be required to pass a road skills test.

Vehicle Title & Registration

You must title and register your vehicle within 90 days of moving to Idaho. Whether your out-of-state vehicle registration has expired or not, you must title and register your vehicle within 90 days of moving to Idaho.

Make sure your vehicle meets Idaho's minimum insurance standards

You must have your vehicle insured with a company licensed to do business in Idaho and have the following minimum coverage:

- $25,000 for injury or death of one person in any one accident
- $50,000 for injury or death of two or more persons in any one accident
- $15,000 for damage or destruction of property of others in any one accident

What to bring to your county Assessor's DMV office

- The vehicle you want to title and register. A county employee will inspect the vehicle's identification number at that time.
- Your vehicle's current title and registration. If the vehicle has not been titled in your name, be sure the title has been signed over to you by the seller. You will also need the bill of sale from the seller or to have the seller enter the price in the designated area of the title.
  - If the title is being held by a lienholder, bring the lienholder's name and address
  - If your title has been lost, you will need to apply for a duplicate title from the state of issuance
- Your personal identification. You will need to bring your current driver's license, state identification card, passport or Social Security card.
- Cash, check or credit card to pay the fees and taxes. Fees and taxes for registering a vehicle in Idaho vary depending on what type of vehicle you have, its age, how much it is worth and the county in which you live. For a listing of fees, go to dmv.idaho.gov.
