

Idaho Driver's License and Identification Card Extension Fact Sheet

Idahoans whose driver's license or identification card expired in July and August and have not renewed or license or identification card will expire in September:

- Will automatically have their licenses or identification cards extended until Oct. 31 by the DMV
- This extension will be made to the individual's DMV record and be visible to law enforcement
- The extension will be available to the driver's vehicle insurance company

Idahoans who are flying commercially whose driver's license or identification card have been extended by the DMV need to:

- Present their current driver's license or identification card to the Transportation Security Administration (TSA)
- The TSA accepts a driver's license or identification card that is up to one year past the expiration date as a valid identity document
- If an Idahoan's license or identification card has been expired for more than one year, he or she will need to renew it at a county Sheriff's DMV office

The extension does not apply to:

- Drivers whose privileges are currently suspended
- Drivers with Commercial Drivers Licenses who do not have a legal presence document with the DMV
- Drivers with Commercial Drivers Licenses with an expired HazMat endorsement
