

Chris Pomeroy

Chris is currently the Airport Director at the Friedman Memorial Airport (SUN) in Hailey, Idaho, and gateway to beautiful Sun Valley.

Chris has over 29 years of experience as an airport professional. Prior to becoming the Airport Director at SUN, Chris held positions in Airport Operations (Centennial Airport (APA) -Denver), Aviation Planner/Senior Aviation Planner with the Colorado and Washington State Aeronautics agencies, and as a senior airport planning consultant based in Colorado and Idaho serving airports throughout the Northwest Mountain Region including Colorado, Idaho, Oregon, Montana, Washington, and Wyoming. Chris has worked his entire aviation career in the FAA Northwest Mountain Region.

Chris served as President of the Northwest Chapter of the American Association of Airport Executives (NWAAAE) from 2022-2023. He is currently Vice Chairman on the national AAAE United States Contract Tower Association (USCTA) Policy Board. He also previously served as Chairman of the American Council of Engineering Companies (ACEC) – Idaho – Aviation Committee.

Chris holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Aviation Management from Metropolitan State University of Denver and is a proud alum of the Centennial Airport (APA) Airport Internship Program. In his spare time, Chris enjoys fly-fishing and other outdoor recreational activities with his wife. He holds a Private Pilot's license however he is not current.