

DBE DIRECTORY SEARCH OPTIONS

When searching the DBE Directory you will want to search by the Business Description or by the NAICS (industry code). You will want to make sure you identify the “District” and the “Work Category”

If you are searching for DBE’s available to do a specific type of work for construction make sure to select “Construction” under “Work Category”. If searching for DBEs available to do specific consulting work make sure to select “Consulting” under “Work Category”.

We recommend leaving the “Search by Person” and “Search by Location” fields empty if seeking a comprehensive list of firms that do a certain type of work within a specified District.

If you are searching for a specific firm you can search by simply entering the “Business Name”.

The image shows a screenshot of the DBE Directory Search Options form. The form is divided into several sections, each with a title and search criteria. Red circles highlight specific fields: the Business Name/DBA field, the Business Description field, the Commodity Codes field (which contains a button), the Contact Person/Owner fields (First Name and Last Name), the City field, the State dropdown menu, the Work Districts/Regions dropdown menu, and the Work Category dropdown menu. The form also includes tips for each search option.
