

Statement of Authorization to Sell New Vehicle*

I certify under penalty of perjury pursuant to Idaho law that

Dealer Name

is legally authorized by the manufacturer to sell the

Year	Make	Model

noted on the attached application for certificate of title to the purchaser listed therein, and that any purchaser or lienholder shown on the manufacturer's statement or certificate of origin is also recorded on the title application unless a release of interest from them is also attached.

If I am an Idaho dealer, I understand that the manufacturer's statement or certificate of origin must be reassigned to the purchaser and retained by the authorized dealership for a period of five years. These documents must also be available for inspection by the Idaho Transportation Department in accordance with IDAPA 39.02.03 and Idaho Code Section 49-504(3).
